Thinking about Salem? Wondering about exploring membership here?

Make plans to attend a Newcomers' Luncheon and Orientation following worship on Sunday, April 12. We'll share together our stories, talk about the ways that Lutherans embrace the Christian faith and about the life and ministry of our own congregation. We'll be done by about 1:30pm that day. Call the church office 360-336-3600 or email office@slcmv.org to sign up.

Do you enjoy interacting with kids? Consider sharing and teaching God's Word with Salem's youngest members! We are looking for people to help lead a 15-20 minute Bible lesson once or twice a month during Coffee hour. Materials will be provided. If interested or if you have any questions, please contact Treva Votipka at: blumenshinetreva@msn.com

Palm Sunday Brunch

A very special THANK YOU to Sue Ney and our beloved council members for hosting a wonderful Palm Sunday Brunch. With Sue's organizing skills and the council's willingness to go above and beyond, we all enjoyed a great time and fantastic food! We are truly blessed here at Salem!

Hosanna! Hosanna! Hosanna!

We all enjoyed heavenly music from Bonnie and our Choir on Palm Sunday. Cannot wait for EASTER!!! Don't miss it!

Another outreach of Salem Lutheran is helping Friendship House (in old town Mount Vernon) with meals once a month. They are in need of cookies regularly. Kay Stendal is in charge of our group and needs 3 dozen cookies each month. If you love to bake, consider donating your cookies (although store bought is good too!). Just label them for Friendship House and put them in the freezer. There is also a sign up sheet just outside the Fellowship Hall. Questions? Call the office at 360-336-3600.

Sewing for Others (aka Tying Knots) is meeting Wednesday, April 1 at 9:15. Come join the fun!
